Fate of Ruby Is Now in Hands of Jury

By RELMAN MORIN

DALLAS (AP)—Dr. Frederick A. Gibbs, Chicago authority on epilepsy, testified today in Jack Ruby's murder trial that Ruby has "a very rare type of epilepsy."

Gibbs told the jury that he came to Dallas voluntarily to testify in the trial of Ruby for the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald, accused presidential assassin.

Gibbs replied to a question by chief defense counsel Melvin Belli when asked what the specialist found in Ruby's electroencephalograms:

"I detected that he has a particular, very rare type of epilepsy which does not manifest itself in seizures but in other ways."

A number of psychiatric and medical witnesses who have testified for the prosecution said they flatly disagree with Gibbs' interpretations of Ruby's encephalograms—brain wave tests.

Gibbs' name and a letter he wrote concerning his opinion of Ruby's condition have been fiercely fought points of contention throughout Ruby's trial. Belli made numerous attempts to get Gibbs' findings before the jury, and Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade struggled to keep them out.

Gibbs was the 66th witness in the trial nearing the end of its fourth week. The state rested its case late Thursday and continued on Page Three

Candidate Files for Re-election

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Prosecutor Lyman L. Mikel of Fort Smith filed today as a candidate for re-election in the 12th Judicial Circuit.

The district includes Sebastian and Scott counties.

House Develops the Election Year Jitters

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP)—In a sudden seizure of election year jitters, the House has said "no thanks" to a $10,000-a-year pay raise.

Its surprising decision Thursday that at $22,500 Congress members are paid enough, killed a bill that would have boosted the salaries of 1.7 million government workers. The average mailman and government secretary stood to gain $450 annually.

Theoretically, the Senate can revive the pay boost drive later this session, and to make it more palatable, at more modest proportions. Veteran observers consider this unlikely.

The higher salary structure had the strong support of the House Democratic leadership and the Johnson administration. It was scaled to boost those in the top levels 22.5 per cent and those on the lower rungs 3 per cent on the theory that the government can retain top people only by making their pay competitive with private industry.

However, this is an election year, and while the voter may favor a $450 raise for his postman he may look askance at a $10,000 boost for his congressman. Besides, the administration has filled the air with talk of economy.

Still, Democratic and Republican leaders were certain that if the House members did not have to go on record the $545 million bill would be passed. As the day wore on, provisions calling for increases for different groups of government workers were approved on lopsided nonrecorded votes.

When the critical vote on over-all passage was imminent, a long-time economy champion, Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, demanded a roll call. This would force every House member to go on record on a pay boost for himself and would tell the voter how his congressman voted.

Gross' move turned the tide. Although a little while earlier the House had voted 125-37 to keep congressional pay increases in the bill, now 136 Republicans joined with 86 Democrats to defeat the measure 222-184.

The 149 Democrats and 35 Republicans who voted for passage now are on record in favor of a pay increase that they did not get.

Wants to Ban Ordinance on Blasting

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Fort Smith resident asked the Arkansas Supreme Court today to declare invalid a city ordinance prohibiting blasting within the city limits.

James M. Hackler and the Mississippi Valley Engineering Co. are appealing to the Supreme Court from a Sebastian Chancery Court order which in effect upheld the ordinance.

Hackler has asked the court to issue an injunction against enforcement of the ordinance while the appeal is argued. The court agreed today to hear oral arguments on the motion Monday.

This is the second time this case has been before the Supreme Court. Chancellor Hugh Bland originally issued a restraining order against enforcement of the ordinance and the city asked the Supreme Court to overturn his ruling.

The Supreme Court refused to disturb the order, but Bland later dissolved it himself.

Hackler is owner of the land on which Mississippi Valley has a contract for quarrying stone to be used in an Arkansas River Development job. Hackler said he will lose $20,000 if the ordinance is enforced and Mississippi Valley said it has a time limit on the job which will expire with governors of the affected processed if an injunction is not issued.

Accountant Says Baker Forged Name

WASHINGTON (AP)—At a stormy meeting of the Senate Rules Committee today, Republicans placed in evidence a sworn charge from an accountant that his signature had been forged on Bobby Baker's federal income tax returns.

The accountant, Milton L. Haft, of Kensington, Md., said in an affidavit that he discovered this when he was called to the Internal Revenue Service Thursday for questioning about tax returns he had prepared for Baker.

Republicans submitted Haft's affidavit in demanding that the committee go forward with its investigation of Baker's outside business dealings while he was secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority.

Baker, a one-time Senate page who built up a fortune he has valued at more than $2 million, resigned under fire last Oct. 7 from his $19,600-a-year Senate post.

Prior to the start of today's closed committee meeting, the Democratic majority indicated they were ready to end the investigation of any more witnesses would only be repetitious.

But, just before the session began, Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., gave new men a copy of Haft's affidavit. He said it showed that new evidence still was coming in, and that the investigation should be continued.

Scott left the committee session briefly to report in angry tones that the committee had refused to accept the affidavit in evidence, but later Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., got it into the record.

The affidavit was sent to Sen. B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., the committee chairman, by Sen. John J. Williams, R-De., who initiated the probe.

Haft's affidavit, dated Thursday, said that while presenting information to the IRS on Baker's returns, he was questioned about some partnership tax returns he had prepared for the plush Carousel Motel at Ocean City, Md., of which Baker was the principal owner.

"During the course of my association with Mr. Baker I had never prepared any returns for the Carousel Motel," Haft said. "When presented with the return by the Internal Revenue Service, I noted that the signatures purported to be mine were forgeries."

Haft said that he went back to personal returns he had prepared for Baker "and on looking at the signatures on these returns I noted that the signatures as to the person preparing these returns were also forgeries and were not my signature."

Haft said he immediately reported this to IRS investigators and gave them samples of his handwriting for matching purposes.

Cold Moving Across State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A cold front moving eastward across the state will bring showers and scattered thunderstorms to Arkansas late today and Saturday.

Rain will replace clear skies and warm southerly winds in the western half of Arkansas today and the front will spread over the state, ending Saturday night.

Overnight low temperatures were generally in the mid 40s and 50s, though Calico Rock in north Arkansas recorded a 31.

Maximums were in the mid 60s and low 70s Thursday and are expected to be in the mid to upper 70s today.

Cooler weather is expected Saturday, but the Weather Bureau said Sunday should be a sunny, warm spring like day.

Jury packed in Murder Trial

HARRISBURG, Ark. (AP)—An all-male jury was selected Thursday for the first degree murder trial of Thomas L. Coleman, 52, of Marked Tree.

He is charged with shooting Ray Harp, 40, also of Marked Tree, outside Coleman's tavern last Nov. 23. Harp was shot in the head with a .38 caliber revolver.

Prosecutor A. S. Harrison said the state put four witnesses on the stand Thursday and expected to complete its case today.

Tom Sawyer Contest Wants Entries

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. John M. Dalton of Missouri has challenged Arkansas to send an entry to the 8th annual Tom Sawyer fence painting contest in Hannibal, Mo., July 4.

Dalton said in a letter to Gov. Orval E. Faubus that in past years the contest has been restricted to Missourians. "But we think that perhaps the fence-painting genius is born of the river and this year we are inviting contestants from all the states on the Mississippi River," he wrote.

The contest will be held at the Mark Twain home and memorial museum. It commemorates a classic scene in Twain's "Adventures of Tom Sawyer" in which Tom induces other youths into doing his fence-painting chores.

Lou Oberste, director of publicity for the Arkansas Publicity and Parks Commission, said he is looking for an Arkansas contestant.

White River Crests at 32 Feet

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The rain-swollen White River hit a 32-foot crest at Newport today, but the Weather Bureau said no flooding was reported.

The Ouachita River was expected to crest at 30 to 31 feet at Camden Saturday. It stood at 27.7 feet today, above the 26-foot flood stage.

The Arkansas River hit a crest at Pine Bluff today but was well below flood stage at 11.1 feet. Flood stage is 25 feet. The Arkansas was falling between Van Buren and Ozark and was expected to fall 18 inches between Ozark and Pine Bluff in the next 24 hours.

The Black River in Northeast Arkansas, which has been above flood stage for several days, was at 23.8 feet and falling today at Black Rock. It had fallen a foot in the last day. Flood stage is 14 feet.

The White River was expected to crest at 33 to 34 feet at Augusta Saturday. It was at 32.3 feet today. Flood stage is 32 feet.

The Ouachita River was at its highest in Camden in more than a year. The extended drought has kept the river below flood stage.

Jack Arnett Announces for Sheriff

Today the Star was authorized to announce the candidacy of Jack Arnett for the office of Sheriff and Collector. His announcement follows:

For several years I have had a strong desire to serve the people of Hempstead County as Sheriff and Collector.

I come as no stranger to most of you, having lived most of my life in this county. I was born and reared near Emmet. My wife and I have two children, a son and daughter, both of whom received their education in Hempstead County and now make their home in Hope.

This is the first time that I have ever asked for a public office, and I feel that I am qualified and have the ability and experience to serve you in a courteous, impartial and satisfactory way.

I am familiar with the many phases of work in the Sheriff and Collector's office, in the court procedure and juvenile work, as I have served three years as deputy sheriff under the late sheriff, Jimmie Cook; and for the past six years in the capacity as salesman.

I present myself to you as a citizen of the County, a husband and father, not for a fourth term but for a first term.

As a citizen, I believe in the true principles of democracy in giving every citizen an equal chance and opportunity. I do not want a monopoly on the Sheriff's office. Give me an opportunity of serving you for two terms and I will step down and help give your son, husband, or brother his chance.

I earnestly solicit your vote and support in the coming election, and will make every effort to see you personally soon.

Sincerely,
Jack Arnett

Man Hurt in Auto Accident

Late yesterday on Highway 67 west an auto driven by Robert Hodge of Texarkana hit a bridge abutment and careened into the railing. Hodge was critically hurt and was taken by a Herndon-Cornelius ambulance to a Texarkana hospital for treatment. He suffered a severe foot injury. The car was demolished.

Would Force Integration in Alabama

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government asked a federal court today to require Alabama to take positive steps to eliminate racial segregation in its school system.

In a brief filed in a suit pending in U.S. District Court in Montgomery, Ala., the Justice Department in effect called for statewide desegregation of public schools. It was the first time the department had taken so broad a stand in a court action.

The brief stated the government's views in reply to six specific questions asked by the court. The pending suit is School Board, urging that it be prohibited from blocking integration of the county's three high schools.

The department contended that state officials led by Gov. George C. Wallace repeatedly had demonstrated their power over local school boards in enforcing segregation.

By the same token, the department said, the court should order Wallace and the State Board of Education "to take affirmative steps to eliminate the dual school system, based on race, which now exists in Alabama."

The government also asked the court to declare unconstitutional state financial aid for students attending racially segregated schools throughout Alabama.

RFK Again Denies Rift With Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy denies reports that he and President Johnson are feuding.

The stories of a long-standing and widening rift gained broad circulation in connection with a write-in campaign on behalf of the attorney general as a vice presidential choice in this week's New Hampshire primary. A similar effort in Wisconsin added to the speculation.

Courtney Prentice, 18, of Norton, Mass., a member of a student delegation calling on the attorney general Thursday, put the straight question to Kennedy. Would he care to comment on his relations with the President?

"They've always been friendly and still are friendly," Kennedy replied. "He is continuing where my brother (President John F. Kennedy) started."

"There is no substance to these reports."

As for Johnson himself, Kennedy had this to say: "I have the highest regard for him. He's been kind to me and my family and to Mrs. (John F.) Kennedy."

Kennedy tried Thursday to call off the Wisconsin write-in drive just as he had done a week ago in the New Hampshire case.

In Milwaukee, however, the leader of the campaign for Kennedy said the attorney general's statement would not halt the effort.

At the White House an informed source denied the basic element of the report of friction between Johnson and Kennedy—a story that Kennedy had opposed Johnson's selection at the 1960 Democratic National Convention as running mate for his brother. The White House source said that was false, that the Kennedy brothers were in agreement on Johnson.

Flood Damage Runs Heavy in Several States

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The crest of the flood-swollen Ohio River moved westward today. It left in its wake several states with damage already estimated at $50 million, and nine deaths.

The Red Cross estimated 110,000 persons were affected. Many thousands of them driven from their homes. The flood picture was one of wading evacuations, and dog-tired flood workers and refugees. Injuries were few.

Flood crests were due today at Cincinnati and Louisville, where a final steel gate in the floodwall clanked into place Thursday afternoon. The wall was prepared to stand a 48-foot crest, or 6.6 feet higher than the predicted crest.

There appeared hope the worst was over. Downstream—to the west—water began edging toward riverfront buildings at Owensboro, Ky., but only a few families were expected to be routed. A floodwall protects Paducah, near where the Ohio joins the Mississippi River.

Across from Louisville, in Indiana, damage already was estimated at $1 million at Jeffersonville and Aurora. At least 1,000 were made homeless in Indiana.

There was no official estimate of Kentucky evacuees but residents of 30 counties were affected. Southwest of Louisville, officials said about 95 per cent of one huge subdivision fled by Thursday night.

Other states affected were Virginia.

Army Engineers gave preliminary estimates of $40.5 million damage along the Ohio from Cincinnati to Paducah—a highway distance of about 350 miles—and more than $9 million from four other Kentucky rivers.

Of the deaths blamed on high water, seven were in Ohio and one each in Kentucky and Indiana.

DOROTHY DIX

GESTURES REVEAL CHARACTER MORE THAN WORDS DO

By DR. JOYCE BROTHERS

Dear Dr. Brothers: I'm no psychologist, but I've always found it fun to study people. I've noticed a person's gestures seem to say a lot, and sometimes the exact opposite of what he's telling me. Am I wrong? —D. L.

Dear D.L.: No, you're not wrong. And since you're just having fun with your observations, try them out at a party. That's a wonderful place to find people's conversation and gestures, they'll be telling you all about themselves, and doing it quite unconsciously.

There's no such thing as an accidental gesture. Each one means something. And what your friends express in words, and what they actually feel, are not always the same.

Look for telltale gestures in someone whose conversation flows smoothly and serenely, crushing out an already dead cigarette, or shredding a paper napkin. It tells you more than words the speaker is in an inner state of turmoil.

And here's another type of revealing gesture you may see: The person who constantly touches and button-holes you, to keep your attention. It doesn't signify a great interest in you, but it does signify something else: A great lack of self-confidence.

Has someone ever approached you with an antagonistic look, while holding one wrist with the other hand? Be on your guard. This is the gesture of the individual unconsciously restraining himself from physical action. The man who drums his fingers on the table is also antagonistic. Politeness keeps him rooted to the spot, so he escapes you by this symbolic escape movement.

The posture people assume at a party is another clue to their inner reactions. For instance, the man standing by the fireplace with his legs crossed. It may be a pose to show he's relaxed, but he's unconsciously signalling that he's on the defensive, and he's in the mood to apologize about something.

The young woman sitting with her legs crossed, smoothing her skirt over her knees, is not on the defensive at all. She's on rick's Day.

The notes, an aide of Mrs. Kennedy said, have been sent to principal post offices in preparation for the mass mailing. The letters will go to persons in virtually every nation of the world.

the offensive. She's an unconscious flirt, and is not being modest, but rather calling attention to her pretty legs.

Egotism in a man shows much more openly than you think. Watch his hands. Does he tug at the cuff of his shirt, or arch his eyebrows while he adjusts his tie? If so, he's signalling a very high opinion of himself. And he is, if he steeples his fingers. This is not contemplation — it's the outright clue to egotism.

Have you ever taken your husband to a party, despite his mild protests, and watch him take a hitch in his trousers just before he enters your host's door? Most wives have seen their husbands do this. He's not worried about his trousers being loose, but concerned about some thing else — facing up to the party ordeal. By taking a hitch in his pants, the average husband is simply preparing to face the worst.

Now, you can't evaluate a complete personality by one gesture, nor can you become an expert at reading people at one party. But have a good time, anyway.

Honor System Check Cheating

Dear Dr. Brothers: Does an honor system reduce cheating? They've introduced it in my daughter's school and I'm not so sure it's a good idea. —L.V. M.

Dear L.V.M.: There are many arguments in favor of the honor system, involving concepts of individual worth, trust in man's basic goodness, his sense of fair play. The main argument is that for the majority an honor system simply means license to cheat.

An experiment was made to try and discover what does happen when an honor system is introduced. Students at a Western University were given an opportunity to cheat by grading their own test papers, after a copy of their original responses had been made.

Before the honor system was instituted 81 per cent of the pupils cheated. When the honor system was instituted this changed to 30 per cent. Evidently, a sense of inner honor did affect the students and prevented the majority of them from cheating. They realized, what was also true under the old system, that they would be cheating was a game of outwitting those in authority. The honor system was no game but a commitment to a high idea.

Walker - Jones Exchange Vows

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Walker of 1612 West 23rd Avenue, Pine Bluff, Arkansas, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Candace Kyle Walker, to Thomas Carl Jones, son of Mrs. Kathryn Jones and the late William Carl Jones of Hope.

The couple was married January 10 at Poteau, Oklahoma by Rev. W. W. Kersh. Both are students at Henderson State Teachers College in Arkadelphia.

Union Meeting of WSCS

The Union meeting of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church met Monday, March 9 at the Church.

Mrs. C. V. Nunn, president, conducted the business. Reports of officers and committees were given. The annual meeting of the WSCS of the Little Rock Conference will be held March 16 and 17. Mrs. Nunn and Mrs. Weir Owen were elected as delegates to this conference. Officers for the New Year beginning in May were elected and are as follows: president, Mrs. C. V. Nunn; vice-president, Mrs. Harry McLemore; secretary, Mrs. George Frazier; treasurer, Mrs. R. L. Broach.

Mrs. Bob Turner gave the devotion which was taken from the M.Y.F. Little Rock Conference Lenten Devotions and was written by Miss Sarah Bagley. Miss Bagley was also the guest speaker on the program and told of the work of the Methodist Youth Fellowship in the Conference, and of her work as president of the Conference MYF, which was very interesting and informative.

The Rev. Gladwin Connell was present and closed the meeting with prayer.

Garland P.T.A. Meets

The Garland P. T. A. had its March meeting on Wednesday in the school auditorium. The president, Mrs. George Young, presided. Mrs. Carter Russell sang the very beautiful song, "He," accompanied by Mrs. Jewel Moore on the piano.

New officers for the coming year were elected and they are as follows:

President, Mrs. Dean Murphy; Vice-President, Mrs. C. A. L. V. in Smith; Secretary, Mrs. Gene Pendergraft; Treasurer, Mrs. Harry Murphy.

The guest speaker, Mr. Ed Trice, gave a very interesting talk on "Drop-outs." The meeting was then adjourned by the president.

Daffodil Garden Club

In a setting of spring-like decorations the Daffodil Garden Club was hostess for a Style Show and Desert-Bridge at the Youth Center Thursday afternoon, March 12. The money derived from the entertainment tickets will be used for the club project, beautification of the city.

An assortment of desserts were served with coffee to about 75. Then, a style show featuring sports wear and Easter dress ensembles from Lewis-McLarty, Ladies Specialty Shop, and Riley's Style Shoppe was presented with models from the sponsoring Garden Club. Mrs. Don Evans acted as mistress of ceremonies.

Bridge was played at 14 tables during the afternoon. When drawings were held for door prizes, Mrs. J. W. Branch won the table centerpiece from Monty's Florist, and merchandise certificates for ladies ready-to-wear went to Mrs. Lester Godwin, Mrs. Hillman Koen, and Mrs. L. L. Webb.

Bride-Elect Feted

Miss Troy Hammons, bride-elect of Ree Bass, was feted with a dessert-bridge Wednesday night, March 11, by Miss Mary Roy Moses. The honoree and her mother, Mrs. Foy Hammons, were given corsages of red and white camellias.

Branches of japonica and a large bouquet of King Alfred jonquills decorated the Moses home, where the party was held. Dessert and coffee were served to 16.

When bridge was played at three tables, the high scorer was Mrs. Lloyd Leverett, and Mrs. Jud Martindale was second high. A gift was presented to the guest of honor by the hostess at this time.

Births

It's a boy for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clifford Franks of Minden, La., born on March 10. He is their third son and their fifth child, and he has been named Lee Shaddox. Grandparents are Mrs. Graham Brown of Arkadelphia and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Franks of Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Henry of Texarkana announce the arrival of their first daughter, Shannon Michelle, born March 12 at Wadley Hospital. She weighed 8 lbs. and 2 ounces. The Henrys have one other child, a son.

Mrs. Henry will be remembered as the former Bevelyn Ball. Maternal grandmother is Mrs. A. C. Ball of Hope, and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bert Henry of Texarkana.

Coming and Going

Charles Lowthorp, Dallas, and Joe C. Lowthorp, Murfreesboro, were here over the weekend to see Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gorin.

The Rev. Ed Pendleton, Enid, Okla., was the over-night guest of Dr. and Mrs. George Wright on Wednesday of last week.

A large group went to the state basketball tournament in Little Rock Wednesday. They included: Cookie Jones, Phala Brown, Becky Waller, Charles Walker, Jim Fouse, Al Weisenberger, Donna Ayers, Suzie Waller, Diane Ellis, Diane Purtle, Susan Rogers, Mrs. Leonard Ellis, Mrs. Herbert Rogers, Margie Herndon, Martha Allison, Betsy Martindale, Principal Jack Beatty, and Superintendent James H. Jones.

Mrs. Clifford Franks left Friday morning for Minden, La., to see the Charles Clifford Franks family and to meet her new grandson.

Mrs. Lloyd Spencer went to Chickasha, Okla., Wednesday, for the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Lizzie Cotham, who was 104 years of age.

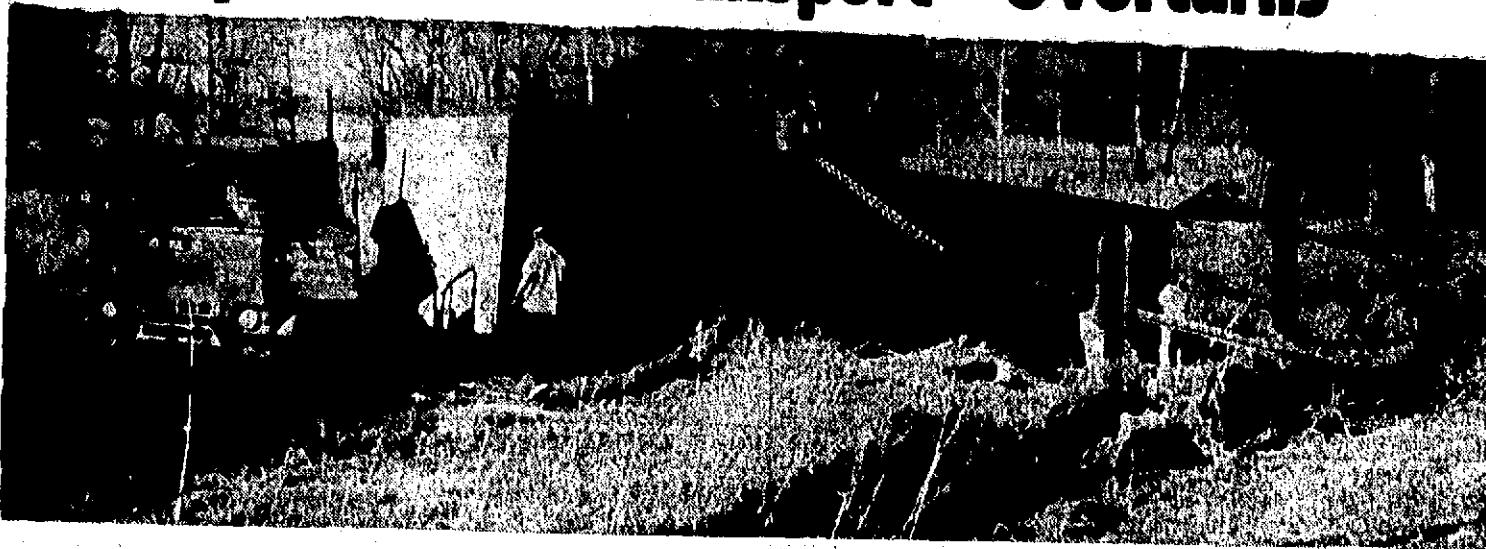

The Rev. and Mrs. Rufus Sorrells, North Little Rock, drove Mrs. O. W. Mills home Wednesday after she accompanied their son-in-law, G. P. Minshew, on a hospital plane from Falfurrias, Texas, to a VA Hospital in Little Rock.

Mrs. Colyer Cox, Hot Springs, came Wednesday to see the Martin Pools and Luther Hollamon. The Herbie Cooks of Hot Springs will join the family group this weekend.

Mrs. H. C. Whitworth and Mrs. L. A. Francis, of Texarkana, went to Little Rock Wednesday for a UDC Board Meeting at the Woman's City Club. At that time tentative plans were made for a meeting of District 4 in Washington on April 15 at 10 a. m. with luncheon to be served in the school auditorium, which is now being remodeled.

Mrs. Lottie Wesson and Mrs. Marguerite Dobson, both of Texarkana, were Thursday visitors with Miss Sue Wesson here.

THE WEEPING WIDOW MINE

By Nelson C. Nye

Copyright 1964, Nelson C. Nye

THE STORY: Tiberius Jones, who has a judgment against Charlie Medders, has impounded the ore that Medders sold to O'Toole, the assayer. Then after escaping Jones, Medders meets O'Toole on the street. O'Toole wants his money back. But Medders meets Jones after momentarily eluding O'Toole.

XI

Jones, exuding satisfaction, looked tickled as Delilah peering down at shorn Samson or Salome viewing the head of dead John.

As the first awful grip of his fright began to loosen, Charlie's stare, quickened by hope, anxiously prowled the hemming faces, finding little to reassure him.

Long ago he'd exhausted the last vestige of his credit, repaying people's patience with a clatter of unkept promises. Now, with a caveat of silver—needing only time to move it, he was flanked by the claws of this grinning Legree and no one, it looked like, would say a word for him.

While they had no love for Tiberius Jones—not one of these hardshells would lift a finger to shield Charlie Medders from this polecat's revenge.

Ignoring the titlers, Medders brushed himself off. "I've been thrown out of better places," he growled, counting faces again. But he could not find McFarron's and interpreted this to be an ominous sign.

Being jailed was not the worst that could happen. Jones had his big casino with him—Dry Camp Burks, that would no more worry about potting a guy than he would at discovering a worm in his chawing tobacco.

Charlie felt his scraped jaw. Leaving his gun in his room had been a pretty dumb stunt, but he was danged if he would beg!

Jones with a widening grin observed, "Appears you've about reached the end of your tether." When this got no answer he said, nastily chuckling: "I guess you're all squared off to pay back that loan."

A gent was perfectly willing to take care of his obligations but how could you know after all this while which were real and which drummed up to take advantage of his predicament? He covered his fears with a scowl and stood pat; whereupon with some unction the great

Only on Fee Basis

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The attorney general's office ruled Thursday that a sheriff is entitled to a car allowance only in counties where he is paid on a fee basis. Pope County Sheriff Otto Brinkman of Russellville was told that the law provides for from $500 to $800 annual expenses per each private automobile used for official business. The car allowance shall be payable from the earnings of the office, the ruling said.

Mrs. Lottie Wesson and Mrs. Marguerite Dobson, both of Texarkana, were Thursday visitors with Miss Sue Wesson here.

Harry Truman to Visit Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman and other leaders in art, education, industry and politics will honor Brooks Hays at a testimonial dinner here April 6.

Others who are expected to appear are Sen. John Sherman, R-Ky.; television star Mitch Miller; composer Meredith Willson; and Dr. Lewis Webster Jones, president of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Hays is a former U.S. representative from Arkansas, past president of the Southern Baptist Convention, and now is brotherhood chairman of the NCCJ.

The Arkansas chapter of the NCCJ is sponsoring the dinner to mark the state's observance of Brotherhood Week.

The U.S. Information Agency plans world-wide coverage of the dinner.

have so comforting a feeling.

His intentions toward Medders had not changed in the least—but there were other ways than violence of getting at the man. Appearing nettled he said: "I am not here to argue. What these gentlemen want is some sort of installment against the bills you have run up. A little earnest money," he suggested, smiling when the shopkeepers growled. "Is that too much to ask?"

"Well . . . no," Charlie, feeling through his clothes, was not as stupid as he looked. He could bend with the wind if that were the lesser of two hateful courses. "I'd admire to do what is right. You divvy this up the away you reckon is best. Hold out your hat," he grumbled, and emptied his pockets.

The alacrity of his capitulation darkly sharpened the banker's stare, but, concealing his annoyance, Jones toted up the coins and currency, saying at last in deeper disappointment, "I make it $478.47."

Fate of Ruby

Judge Joe B. Brown had expected that would end the testimony.

However, defense lawyers, after a battle, won permission from Judge Brown to delay the end of testimony until today so Gibbs could reach Dallas and testify.

After Gibbs finished, the defense rested. The state finished its case Thursday.

Judge Brown recessed the hearing until 1 p.m. (CST) at which time he said he would be ready to read the charge to the jury.

Ruby faces the electric chair for killing Lee Harvey Oswald Nov. 24. Oswald was the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

Ruby's lawyers contend he suffers from psychomotor epilepsy, and was legally insane when he killed Oswald.

Belli said Dr. Gibbs is the world's leading authority on psychomotor epilepsy, but "he felt that he didn't want to come into a courtroom and testify where adversary procedure is followed."

Gibbs agreed to come as an independent witness, the attorney said.

Several expert witnesses, testifying for the state, said they disagree with Gibbs' conclusions about psychomotor epilepsy and his interpretation of electroencephalograms (brain wave tracings) made in tests on Ruby.

The trial, which began Feb. 17, developed pretty much into a battle of psychiatrists.

Faubus Attends Davis Testimonial

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus attended a $50 a plate dinner honoring Louisiana Gov. Jimmie H. Davis in Baton Rouge, La., Thursday night.

Davis, 61, is completing his term May 12. John J. McKeithen will take office. Davis also served from 1944 to 1948.

McKeithen and Gov. Paul Johnson of Mississippi also attended the banquet for Davis. Money collected at the dinner will go toward building a non-denominational tabernacle near Davis' birthplace in Jackson Parish.

Faubus was returning to his office today.

'64 CHEVROLET—THE GREAT HIGHWAY PERFORMER

Chevrolet Impala Convertible

Nothing feels steep in a Chevrolet Impala (including the price!)

A hill is just something to admire the view from in a '64 Chevrolet with engines up to a 425-hp V8*.

And if Chevrolet can go over a whole mountain so you hardly feel it, you can imagine how it goes over plain old bumps. Jet-smooth, of course, because we put a big coil spring at all four wheels (and 700 sound and shock absorbers throughout the car).

As you'd expect, Chevrolet turns in its usual fine performance with everything inside that big beautiful Body by Fisher, too. All kinds of stretch-out room. Wide thick-cushioned seats. Yards of deep-twist carpeting and elegant fabric and vinyl upholstery. You feel good just being there. You can see how anyone might get the idea this is a high-priced car. Unless they happened to look first at its Chevrolet price.

And your Chevrolet dealer will be happy to show you that the price is probably what you'll feel least of all.

*Optional at extra cost who quit after the 1959 season, returned briefly in 1961 and then retired permanently. Jensen said he wanted to spend more time with his family, but he also feared air travel.

"This is a personal matter which I am not free to discuss," Howard told The Associated Press. "I can't imagine how my letter to Mr. Bavasi leaked out."

Howard, who received $22,000 from the Dodgers last season while collecting the fifth and final installment on a $108,000 bonus given him after his graduation from Ohio State, would go to Vero Beach to see Bavasi "as soon as I have taken care of some legalities here."

"He has been good enough to counsel me in the past and I hope that he will do so again," he said. "I do not even know myself what I will do. There is a possibility I might quit baseball, but there's a chance I might not."

Bavasi said earlier that Howard had informed him in a letter:

"As you know, I have given this careful consideration and I regret to tell you I have decided to quit baseball.

"I have found that money is not the cure to all ills. I have discussed this with my family and they realize they will have to make sacrifices. But I know they will be much happier with me at home than to have me gone most of the time like I have been."

Howard and his wife, the former Carole Johanski, have four children. Howard is employed in the off-season as public relations representative for a Green Bay firm.

Bobcats Unable to Match the Tall Wildcats

Hope hit the dust before the terrible onslaught of the North Little Rock Wildcats 81-60 last night in the quarter-finals of the state AA-AAA tournament in Barton Coliseum at Little Rock.

The Wildcats could have beaten the St. Louis Hawks last night, they were so hot. They were just plain wicked, mean, cruel and terrible. They must have hit 99 per cent from the field. The game was stopped twice so the officials could sprinkle ice water on the court in order to protect the finish from the heat.

North Little Rock came tearing out like a bunch of hysterical maniacs. Switching back and forth from a press to a zone, they held the Cats to only a single field goal by Johnny Honeycutt in the first period. They led 20-11 at the quarter.

During the Second Quarter, it began to look as if North Little Rock had invented the rebound. They cleared the boards more times than most teams in the whole season. It was 40-24 at the half.

The Third was much like the Second, with Baldwin and Stephens both standing on the mid-court stripe, each yelling loudly, "Feed me, feed me!" It was 64-43 going into the final period.

The Cats went into a press in the Fourth, and matched points all the way.

If North Little Rock continues to play like they did last night, they're a cinch to take the title. Coach Billy Mitchell summed things up by saying, "We had to spot them too many inches to start with."

Jerry Burnett had his second big game of the tourney by scoring 24 points, and also visiting the press table on one occasion. Dan Jones had 14, Johnny Honeycutt 12, Bill Reinhardt 4, and Paul Henley and Larry Thrash 3 apiece.

Win or lose, though, this year's team has been one of the best ever, and everyone is just as proud of them as if they had won the world championship. They're a great bunch, and have much more than their share of heart. Bobcats, we're proud of you!

UCLA to Risk Longest Win Streak

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
UCLA and San Francisco risk college basketball's longest current winning streaks tonight and the Bruins and the Dons hope the Friday the 13th jinx won't knock them out of the NCAA championship tournament.

Unbeaten UCLA, top-ranked in the final Associated Press poll of the season, will try for its 27th straight against Seattle in the Far West Regionals at Corvallis, Ore. San Francisco goes for its 19th in a row against Utah State at the same place.

Kansas State and Princeton also will try to extend respectable winning streaks as the NCAA takes over the spotlight after the victories of NYU and St. Joseph's, Pa., in Thursday night's opening of the NIT in New York. NYU defeated Syracuse 77-68 and St. Joseph's beat Miami of Florida 86-76.

K-State goes after its 12th straight against Texas Western in the Midwest Regional at Wichita, Kan., and Princeton strives for its 10th in a row against Connecticut in the East Regional at Raleigh, N.C.

Rounding out the second round play in the NCAA tonight is Duke vs. Villanova at Raleigh, Wichita vs. Creighton at Wichita, and Kentucky vs. Ohio Univ. and Michigan vs. Chicago Loyola, the defending champion, in the Midwest Regional at Minneapolis.

Loyola, No. 8 in the AP poll, and Texas Western each have won seven straight and their play against second-ranked Michigan and Kansas State will be watched with interest. Michigan and Kentucky, fourth-ranked, both were defeated in their last regular season games.

The Duke-Villanova clash, like Michigan - Loyola, involves teams in the AP Top Ten. Duke is No. 3 and Villanova No. 7. Their game shapes up as one of the best, along with the ones at Corvallis. Utah State upset Arizona State and Seattle surprised Oregon State in Tuesday's first round.

Duke has won six straight like Creighton which hopes to overcome Wichita and All-America Dave Stallworth.

Steve Courtin, Billy Oakes and Jim Boyle combined for 69 points to offset Rick Barry's 35 as St. Joseph's whipped Miami in the NIT. Similarly Happy Hairston and Barry Kramer combined 49 points offset Dave Bing's 31 in NYU's triumph over Syracuse.

Evansville and Akron won the semifinals of the NCAA small college tourney at Evansville College and will meet for the championship tonight. Evansville defeated State College of Iowa 82-67 and Akron beat North Carolina A&T 57-48.

Pan American of Texas, the defending champion, moved into tonight's semifinals of the NAIA tourney at Kansas City by defeating Mansfield, Pa., 82-69. Rockhurst, Emporia State and Carson-Newman also advanced to the round of four.

and turned in a smart race at the Arkansas track last Saturday.

2 AA and 2 Triple A Teams Still in Meet

LITTLE ROCK (UPI) — El Dorado nipped Valley Springs 72-69 and Conway upset Pine Bluff 46-44 in afternoon quarter-final games in the Class AA-AAA state high school basketball tournament, but North Little Rock and Forrest City had wider margins in winning Thursday night.

North Little Rock, the tourney favorite, whipped Hope 81-60, and Forest City stopped Fayetteville 49-41. The two winners will meet tonight in one semifinal title.

El Dorado meets Conway in the other as it is a Class AA vs. Class AAA evening. North Little Rock and El Dorado, which tied for the Big 10 Conference championship along with Pine Bluff and finished 1-2 in the state rankings, will be favored to make the finals Saturday night.

El Dorado had a rugged time with Little Valley Springs in the quarterfinals. It was 70-69 with 11 seconds to go, but Valley could not get the ball and the Wildcats hit a basket at the buzzer.

Valley, now 43-2, was handicapped by leg injuries to guards James Trammell and Donald McIntire and by the loss of 6-2 Jerry Heard on fouls nearly in the third quarter. Heard was the only thing Valley had to contend against El Dorado's two 6-4 men, David Self and Eddie Peppers.

Both made 12 points while Heard, who sat out the last six minutes of the second quarter after drawing his fourth foul, had only five.

Charles Archer led Valley with 17 and McIntire and Trammell had 16. Jerry Grenshaw added 15 for the losers. James Rowland led El Dorado with 14 and Danny Graves added 13.

The scored was tied at 32 at the half, but El Dorado took a 55-49 lead after three quarters and Valley never led again. Heard left in this period with the score 33-37. El Dorado, but Peppers and Self immediately hit after he left and El Dorado ran up a quick 47-39 margin.

Valley tied it a 57, but Peppers was controlling both boards and El Dorado pulled to a 68-63 lead with two minutes to go and the closest the Tigers could come was 70-69.

Pine Bluff Cold

Pine Bluff was cold from the field and unaggressive under the boards in falling to Conway and a 24-point performance to Robbie Robinson and his quick, aggressive mates.

Gordon Norwood was the only effective Zebra, hitting 20 point, and his brother, Bruce, had 12. Conway piled up a 14-7 lead at the end of the first quarter and led 30-21 at the half.

Pine Bluff never led in the game and the only time the score was tied was at 44-44 on Bruce Maxwell's jump shot with 3:02 to go.

Jerry Fason, a sophomore promoted to the Conway varsity last month, made two free throws with 11 seconds to go to settle it.

Fayetteville Falters

Forrest City outscored Fayetteville 18-9 in the final quarter to win. The Mustangs hit only 10 of 41 from the field the first three quarters and only free throws kept them close at 33-31, but they hit seven of nine in the last period to win easily.

Forrest City gained a 41-39 margin and then scored four straight points on a basket by Jerry France and two free throws by Randy Laws. France led the winners with 13 points, Bobby Peevey had 12 and Laws 11.

Louis Bryant and Robert Wilks, Fayetteville's two Negroes, led the Bulldogs with 11 and 10 points.

Richard Baldwin (6-5) and Gary Stephens (6-4) each scored 18 points and grabbed 20 and 15 rebounds respectively to pace North Little Rock's easy victory. Bobby Vint, a 6-7 sophomore, had his best night with 13 points against the smaller Hope team.

North Little Rock led 40-24 at the half and Hope never caught up. Jerry Burnett paced Hope with 24 points.

Robinson Can't Get Rid of Pride

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — All of Frank Robinson's wounds have healed except one—but you can't patch someone's pride with a row of stitches.

Ask the Cincinnati slugger what happened last year when his batting average plummeted more than 80 points to .259. He thrusts forward a left arm that reveals scars from being stepped on by Milwaukee catcher Gene Oliver and a 30-stitch cut from being spiked by Ron Hunt of the New York Mets.

Ask him what he feels about this year, and he thrusts forward his pride.

"I feel I have something to prove," said Robinson, "and the quicker I can get the better off I'll be. Everybody's going to be watching to see if I had an off year, or whether I'm beginning to slip. I have to come back and have a good year."

With his pride admittedly flagging his natural ability, Robinson's 1963 batting marks but tending his 1963 batting marks but at surpassing his 1962 level — a .342 average, 39 homers, 136 runs batted in and the National League slugging title for the third consecutive year.

"Normally, I'd just be looking forward to doing better than the last year when I got down here," Robinson said, "but I know I can do that this time, so I have to look back to 1962. I had too many hitting defects last season."

Robinson, who threatened to quit baseball after the 1962 season because the game was taking so much out of him physically, made no mention of the beat-

Living Up to Reputation

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—The St. Petersburg Open lived up to its reputation through the first round as the golf tournament of the long-shots, the young and unknown.

A youngster from the plains of eastern Carolina and a West Virginian who plays little tournament golf led the field into the second round today.

Bob Harrison, the North Carolinian who plays out of Palm Desert, Calif., and Mike Krak, the ex-West Virginia University golfer who is a club pro at Oceanside, N.Y., shot five-under-par 67s Thursday.

National Open champion Julius Boros shot a two-under-par 70, three strokes behind.

Jack Nicklaus, the defending Masters and PGA champion and this year's leading money winner, had putting troubles that left him four strokes behind at 71.

Mason Rudolph, winner of this year's New Orleans Open and the third leading money winner ing he look last year when he did manage to lead the league in one department—hit by pitches, 14.

Despite that and the Oliver and Hunt wounds, Robinson said his only concern was for a self-inflicted injury.

"Early last season I tried to hold up on a pitch, and I guess I tried too hard and strained my left wrist," he said. "I'm still worried about it, but it hasn't been bothering me, so it must be okay."

The strained wrist, the cut hand and the spiked bicep all curtailed Robinson's ability. His home run total dipped to 26, his RBI total to 91 and his batting average to the lowest point in a major league career that began with the Reds in 1956.

Card Infield Highest Paid in Baseball

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals' all-star infield is the highest paid in baseball because "we pay our players according to their ability and performance," General Manager Bing Devine said.

The Cardinal quartet cost management about $170,000 for the 1964 season.

"Our infield is the best I've had in seven years as general manager of the Cardinals," Devine said. "But we don't like to stress salaries. I like to talk more about average than salaries."

From either standpoint Devine has plenty to talk about. Second baseman Julian Javier got a reported $20,000. But his three infield mates wrote their names for a lot more loot. Third baseman Ken Boyer, shortstop Dick Groat and first baseman Bill Wite signed contracts for about $50,000 each.

Their National League records last year were impressive. Boyer hit .285 with 111 runs batted in and 24 home runs; Groat hit .319 with 73 RBI; White .304 with 109 RBI and 27 home runs, and Javier .263 with 46 RBI.

The four were considered the best infield in the league. They played in both All-Star games and each was in at least 158 regular season games. Their combined fielding average was .982.

Groat barely missed winning had an even par opening round.

British Open champion Bob Charles had a miserable day. He shot a four-over-par 6.

Browns Line Coach Goes to Eagles

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dick Evans, defensive line coach with the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League, has been signed to fill the same position with the Philadelphia Eagles, it was announced Thursday by Coach Joe Kuharich.

He was released from his Cleveland contract "with great reluctance," said Art Modell, Browns' president. Evans coached the Browns for four seasons.

But a fifth member of the infield, catcher Tim McCarver, may challenge them all.

"McCarver will be as good or better than any catcher in the National League," Devine said. "Naturally, his pay will go up accordingly."

McCarver, starting his second full season this year, signed for about $12,000 after hitting .289 in 127 games last year.

Persol Gets Role of the Favorite

NEW YORK (AP)—Undeclared Johnny Persol was an 8-5 favorite again to defeat Eddie Cotton I. (total in their return television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden tonight.

The 23-year-old New Yorker was the betting choice at the same odds last Feb. 21 when he gained a split decision over the 37-year-old veteran, who then was rated the No. 1 light heavyweight contender by the World Boxing Association.

Persol was ranked ninth by the WBA but on the strength of his victory was elevated to second, just behind former champion Harold Johnson. Cotton was dropped to third.

"I felt I beat him the first time although I didn't get the decision," said Cotton. "Now I know I'll have to win by a bigger margin to get the decision over him in his home town. I feel real good and I intend to do just that. I want another crack at the title and I know it will be goodbye if I don't get this one."

Persol, a pro 14 months, has won all of his 11 pro fights, three by knockouts. Cotton, a pro campaigner for 17 years, has a 50-15-1 record, including 27 knockouts.
